Best Investment
a COW OWNER CAN MAKE

THAT'S what over two million cow owners the world over have found the De Laval Cream Separator to be.

A De Laval Separator saves butter-fat and produces cream of superior quality over any setting system or any other separator every time it is used, twice a day every day in the year.

It involves far less labor than any setting system, has greater capacity, runs easier and lasts from two to ten times longer than any other separator.

Even if you have only two or three cows, if you are selling cream or making butter, a De Laval Cream Separator is the most profitable investment you can make.

If you are using any other cream separator it will certainly pay you to try a De Laval alongside your present machine and see how much cleaner you can skim with a De Laval, and also how much easier it is to run and keep clean and sanitary.

When you consider that a De Laval Separator usually saves its cost the first year and frequently in a few months, and then goes right on doing so for from ten to twenty years, and it is further understood that the De Laval may be purchased on such terms that it will actually pay for itself while you are using it, it can easily be seen that there is no excuse for any one putting off the purchase of this great cream-saving machine.

Local and General

Our local Fair was a complete success from every point of view. Everything went off without a hitch. The entries for the various events and competitions were good. The crowds that found their way to the grounds were great, especially on the second day.

The Management of the Agricultural Society desire all those who have accounts against the Society to present them as soon as possible.

What has become of our new hall project, has it died a natural death, or is it only sleeping.

The Rev. H. M. Horricks and family left town on Thursday for their new home at Castor, making the trip by auto.

The local U.F.A. shipped three car of hogs to Calgary on Thursday.

Mrs. C. Wicks arrived home on Thursday from Calgary, where she has been undergoing a serious operation. We are pleased to state that she is on the way of recovery, and the operation was a complete success.

Mrs. Black (now Mrs. Woodward) quite a surprise on us, when on Wednesday morning we got our papers and noticed the announcement of her marriage to Leroy Anson Woodward, on Friday week. She left for her new home in Calgary to-day Friday.

The Day of Intercession, requested by the Governor-General, will be observed at the Church of the Ascension on Sunday, July 7th, when there will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 8 a.m., to be followed by Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11. By special request there will be a baptism after the second lesson at Morning Prayer.

A hearty invitation is extended to all to take part in the Service of Intercession for our brethren at the Front.

The W.A. of the Church of the Ascension will meet at the home of Mrs. Wolegde, on Thursday, July 4, at 3 p.m.

Wanted.—To lease some good Hay Land, or will buy one year's crop on ground. Apply L. V. Bliss, Crossfield.

They ran down the valley at a moderate speed, and Foster, looking round when they came to a straight piece of road, was not surprised to see a gleam of light in the distance. He lost it a few moments afterwards but it flashed out again every now and then, until they plunged into a thick fir wood. They were about half-way to the station, but the lights had not got much nearer. He had, however, not expected it to do so, because he thought Daly would be satisfied if he kept the train another victim in sight. The danger would arise when they got near the station, and whether they overcame it or not depended on John's coolness and nerve. Foster thought the man would not fail him.

It was a dark night and a damp haze thickened the gloom. Stone walls and ragged thorn bushes leaped up in the glare of the lamps and faded, but one could see nothing out of the bright beam. This was a disadvantage, because Foster could not tell where he was and much depended on his reaching the station with exactly the right time to spare. He was rather anxious about it, since his plan would be spoiled at the start if the train was late. By striking a match in the shelter of the screen, he could see his watch, but it did not seem prudent to distract John's attention often.

By and by the walls vanished and withered hedges, glowing in the lamp, rolled past the car. They were running through a peat moss, with a deep ditch on each side, and a slight incline, to judge by the heavy throb of the engine. Shallow ruts, filled with water, ran across the track ahead and showers splashed about the wheels. Outside the bright beam, the darkness was impenetrable. Foster, however, was conscious of a pleasant thrill. If one looked at the thing in one way, it was plunging into trouble that might have been avoided; but he had been prudent long enough and found a strange satisfaction in being rash. Besides, no matter what difficulties he got into, he would be rescued by the memory of the look Alice had given him.

The way the color swept into her face had stirred him as nothing else had done. Anyway, he had started on the adventure and was going to see it through.

After a time they sped across a bridge, where a barn splashed noisily down a ravine, and John asked: "How long have we got, sir?"

"Ten minutes, if the train's punctual."

"And where's the other car, sir?"

Foster, whose eyes were dazzled by the match he had struck, looked round and saw a minute flash in the dark.

"About half a mile behind, I think."

"Very good, sir. It all depends upon the train now. She's not often late."

The throb of the engine quickened and struck a sharper note, and Foster felt the car lurch forward up the incline. Turning in his seat, he watched the flickering beam behind and saw it grow fainter and then gradually get bright. It looked as if the pursuers, who had perhaps lost sight of the front car's tail lamp, were increasing their speed.

"They're creeping up," he said to John who did not reply.

Foster thought they had now reached the top of the moor, and as they swung up and down across the heathly undulations a streak of light flashed out in the distance.

"That's the train," he said.

"Yes, sir. You can see her for two or three miles."

Then there was a change in the sound and motion and Foster knew the engine was running all out. Showers of small stones and water flew up about the wheels and the wind whipped his face, but the following beam was a little nearer when he looked behind. The other car had reached the summit and it would be a close race, but he thought they could keep their lead long enough. Then he looked ahead and saw that the bright streak he had noticed had gone. The fireman had, no doubt, closed the furnace door, but the lights from the carriage windows twinkled faintly across the heath. He could not see the station, but it was obvious that he had not much time to spare.

A few moments later they swept across a low rise and a faint blur of buildings loomed among a cluster of lights. They were now going furiously and he seized the side of the car as they swung around a curve. He felt the near wheels sink as they struck through spongy sod and the car tilted, but they got round, and there was a sudden jar when the station lay some fifty yards ahead. Foster jumped out before the car quite stopped.

"Round with her! I'm all right," he said.

"Very good, sir. If I might re-

Foster heard nothing more as he ran up the road, carrying the bag. The train was very near; he could hear the roar it made in a shallow cutting, but as he reached the station the sound ceased and the engine rolled past. He took a ticket to Edinburgh, and hurrying across the bridge, picked a compartment that had another occupant and stood at the door, where he could see the steps he had come down. There was nobody on the bridge and he seemed to be the only passenger, but a porter began to drag some packages from the van and leisurely put them on a truck. Foster quivered with impatience as he watched the fellow. If he kept the train another minute, it might be too late. Then he glanced back at the bridge. Nobody came down the steps yet, but porter had not finished, and one could still catch the train.

He crossed the floor to the opposite window, from which he could see the booking office, but as he loosed the strap he felt a jerk. Then the engine panted and the wheels began to turn. He ran back to the other door, but there was only the porter on the platform and the lamps were sliding past. Pulling up the window, he turned to the passenger with a forced smile.

"Sorry if I disturbed you! The man I was looking for hasn't come." In the meantime, John turned the car round and drove back to the bend. The road was narrow, but there was room for two vehicles to pass, provided that both kept well to the proper side. John, however, took the middle and did not sever much when a dazzling beam swept round the curve. He blew his horn; there was an answering shriek from an electric hooter, and then a savage shout. John, who was near the left side now, but not so close as he ought to have been, freed the clutch and used the brake, and the other car, missing him by an inch or two, plunged into the wet grass across the road. As he stopped he saw the boggy soil fly up and the lamps sink towards the ground. Jumping off, he found the car had brought up, in front of a wall, with the front wheels buried to the axle. The driver and a very angry man in a soft hat were getting out.

"You nearly wrecked us," said the latter. "What do you mean by fooling about the middle of the road like that?"

"I wasn't quite in the middle sir. It's an awkward curve and your lights dazzled me."

"Where's the man you brought?"

"I imagine he's caught the train, sir," John answered with imperturbable calm.

He thought the other came near to knocking him down, for he clenched his fist, but after a savage exclamation he went back to the car.

"The engine won't move her. How are we going to get her out?" he said.

"I could give you a pull, sir," John replied with respectful gravity. "They keep a rope at the station for shunting. Perhaps you had better send the driver, sir."

Too Big to Miss

Was Impressed With the Geographical Area of the United States.

The average foreigner can rarely comprehend the geographical area of the United States, was quite fully illustrated by the Englishman and his valet who had been travelling due west from Boston for five days. At the end of the fifth day master and servant were seated in the smoking car, and it was observed that the man was gaining steadily and thoughtfully out of the window. Finally his companion became curious.

"William," said he, "of what are you thinking?"

"I was just thinking, sir, about the discovery of America," replied the valet. "Columbus didn't do such a wonderful thing, after all, when he found this country, did he, now, sir? Hafter all's said an' done, 'ow could 'e help it?"—Everybody's Magazine.

How Canada's Greatest Shoe House Supplies the Nation's Footwear

CONSIDER the amount of time and the infinite care you take when buying footwear to suit your own taste in regard to style, size, etc. Multiply your own individual needs by millions and you will get an idea of the immense task which confronts the makers of Canada's footwear, and the size of the organization it is necessary to maintain for that purpose.

The buying of a single pair of shoes is an event that occupies a person but a few moments two or three times a year—but to meet the accumulated demand of a nation's individuals, it requires the whole resources of a gigantic industry. Ames Holden McCready are truly "Shoemakers to the Nation." It is a title justified by their size and the importance of their business.

It may be a revelation to many Canadians to know that to supply them with proper footwear, this firm maintains huge factories each with many acres of floor space, and hundreds of intricate, almost human, machines—facilities and equipment sufficient to turn out 8,000 pairs of shoes every working day.

It requires a small army of workpeople, clerks and warehousemen, in addition to executives, buyers and travellers.

It requires much study and thought to plan styles and models of Men's, Women's and Children's shoes in their various grades and styles.

In order to secure the best results in the production of various kinds and grades, it is also necessary to specialize.

For example: Ames Holden McCready factories are separated into three distinct factory units, each a complete factory in itself.

One unit of our factories is devoted entirely to the manufacture of high grade footwear for Women and Children. Consider the great variety of styles in women's footwear, including high-top boots, oxfords and pumps.

Consider the many different patterns and lasts, the varieties and shades of leather and finish—then you will see what a great number of models are required to meet the widely different needs of Canadian women in the cities and towns and also in the country districts.

Another factory unit is devoted to making only the better grades and styles of Men's Shoes—shoes for professional men, lawyers, doctors, and all business men, whose occupations permit the use of fine leathers such as calf and kid.

The third unit specializes in sturdier types of shoes for heavy wear and rough usage. Shoes for farmers, lumbermen, miners, trainmen, and workpeople who require a heavier, and more solidly-constructed boot.

In addition to the work of manufacture—the requirements of distribution are also tremendous. A manufacturer must not make his goods economically and well—but he must deliver them—DISTRIBUTE them. Therefore, in addition to a force of 60 travellers constantly visiting the retail trade from coast to coast, Ames Holden McCready maintain, in the centres of population throughout Canada, immense stocks of boots and shoes ready for immediate shipment to the retailers in each section.

These warehouses are located in the following cities:

St. John, Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Edmonton, Vancouver.

Years of experience has taught us the kind and styles of boots which are required in each locality. No matter in what part of Canada you reside, no matter what particular kind of shoe you require, your retail dealer can procure it for you without loss of time.

And that is the reason why you will find, even in the outlying districts, that dealers selling Ames Holden McCready goods are up-to-date with stocks that are fresh and new, and which reflect the latest shapes and styles.

When you see the A.H.M. trade mark on a shoe, you know that not only is that mark an endorsement by the largest shoe concern in Canada, but that being the product of a highly organized industry, the shoe you are buying represents the utmost in value, style and wearing qualities which can be obtained at the price.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Military Service Act, 1917.

Men 19 and 20 Years of Age.

Harvest Leave.

Leave of Absence on Ground of Extreme Hardship.
Procedure to obtain Leave of Absence.

Men Nineteen and Twenty Years of Age.

It has come to the attention of the Government that there is a widespread impression that young men of nineteen years, and those who became twenty since October 13, 1917, as well as those who may become nineteen from time to time and who have been or will be called upon to register under the Military Service Act, are to be immediately called to the colours.

This impression is quite incorrect. No date has yet been fixed for calling upon such men to so report for duty, nor has the question been brought before the Cabinet for decision. In view of the need of labour on the farm, it is most unlikely that consideration will be given to the matter until after the harvest is over, although of course the Government's action must be determined primarily by the military situation.

There is no further obligation incumbent upon young men of the ages above mentioned who have registered or who do so hereafter, until they receive notice from the Registrars.

Harvest Leave.

Some enquiries have been received as to the possibility of granting harvest leave to such troops as may be in the country at that time. No definite assurance can be given on this point as advantage must be taken of ships as they become available. On the other hand, harvest leave will be given if at all possible.

Leave of Absence on Grounds of Extreme Hardship.

It is desired that the Regulations respecting leave of absence in cases of hardship should be widely known and fully understood. Such leave will be granted in two cases:—(a) where extreme hardship arises by reason of the fact that the man concerned is either the only son capable of earning a livelihood, of a father killed or disabled on service or presently in service overseas, or in training for such service, or under treatment after returning from overseas; or the only remaining of two or more brothers capable of earning a livelihood (the other brother or brothers having been killed or disabled on service, or being presently in service overseas, or in training for overseas or under treatment after his or their return from overseas); brothers married before 4th August, 1914, living in separate establishments and having a child or children not to be counted, in determining the fact that the man is the "only" remaining son or brother; (b) where extreme hardship arises by reason of exceptional circumstances such as the fact that the man concerned is the sole support of a widowed mother, an invalid father or other helpless dependents.

It is to be noted that in all these cases the governing factor is not hardship, loss or suffering to the individual concerned, but to others, that is, members of his family or those depending upon him.

Procedure to obtain leave of absence.

A simple system for dealing with these cases has been adopted. Forms of application have been supplied to every Depot Battalion and an officer of each battalion has been detailed whose duty it is to give them immediate attention. The man concerned should on reporting to his unit state that he desires to apply for leave of absence on one or more of the grounds mentioned and his application form will then be filled out and forwarded to Militia Headquarters, Ottawa. In the meantime, if the case appears meritorious, the man will be given provisional leave of absence for thirty days so that he may return home and continue his civil occupation while his case is being finally disposed of.

Best Nerve Specialist In England Was Consulted

But Nervous System Failed to Respond to Treatment Prescribed

Nervous disorders frequently result from injury to the nerves in accidents or because of the shock to the system.

The writer of this letter was injured in a mix-up with some coils, remained unconscious for three weeks, and in spite of continued treatment in hospital could not obtain restoration of the internal nerves which control the action of the digestive and other vital organs. He travelled to Europe and consulted England's greatest nerve specialist. Relief was only temporary, in spite of many treatments used.

His letter gives the facts briefly and tells how he was finally cured by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Can you imagine any more severe test of this great nerve restorative?

Mr. Henry F. Venn, Cefu Ranch, Malakva, B.C., writes: "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has restored my nervous system and given me new health."

Cost of Plowing

It has been estimated that it requires approximately 10 horse-power hours to turn an acre of land. When the team goes at a good speed, one plow will turn about two acres in 10 hours. This will require that the horses travel 176 feet per minute and exert a continuous pull of 35 pounds or 187.5 pounds per horse.

According to statistics compiled by the United States government, horse labor costs 12 to 15 cents per hour. At this rate 10 hours' work will cost $1.25, which may be said to be the average horse cost of plowing an acre.

Reims Cathedral Falling

The Germans are having their revenge on the Cathedral of Reims for their losses at Verdun. They have re-taken to shelling the historic structure. The other day the 1,000th shell struck it. The buttresses are giving way, and if the shelling continues the building is bound to fall entirely. Working parties, who were endeavoring to repair the breaches caused by the fire of the enemy, were aimed at. The unmitigated conduct of the enemy has been reported to the Pope, who has appealed to the Kaiser to give instructions to stop this vandalism.

Won Fame on Its Merits.—The unbounded popularity that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil enjoys is not attributable to any elaborate advertising, for it has not been so advertised, but is entirely due to the merits of this Oil as a medicine. In every city, town and hamlet in the country it is sought after solely because of its good qualities.

The Annotated Guide

C. P. R. Publication That Keeps a Record of the Progress of the West

No publication issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway is better known all over the world than the "Annotated Guide," describing every station along the line. Issued originally at the suggestion of Sir William Van Horne, it has passed through many editions and is now a fair-sized book owing to the great increase in the extent of the railway system. It is interesting to look over the early issues to see how Canada has progressed. In 1888, for instance, Winnipeg had a population of only 25,000. Fort William 1,400, Regina 800, Calgary 2,400, Lake Louise had not been discovered, and Vancouver was proud of its 5,200. Indian Head was famous for the Bell Farm, of which the "Annotated Guide" remarks: "The furrows on this farm are usually ploughed four miles long, and to plough one furrow outward and another returning is a half day's work for a man and team. The work is done with an almost military organization, ploughing by brigades, and reaping by divisions." Toronto is described as "directly western in its activity and energy."

A New Winter Wheat

A new winter wheat has been developed by selection at Kansas Agricultural College. The variety selected from was Turkey Red, but the selection, known as P. 762, has given an average yield of 37 bushels per acre for six years, as compared with 26.5 for the parent variety. In the extremely unfavorable season of 1912, when wheat winter-killed severely in Kansas, it produced forty-eight per cent. more than the Turkey.

THANKFUL MOTHERS

Thousands of thankful mothers throughout Canada—many of them your own neighbors—speak with the greatest praise of that splendid medicine, Baby's Own Tablets. Many mothers would have no other medicine for their little ones. Among these is Mrs. Albert Nie, St. Brieux, Sask., who says: "I have been using Baby's Own Tablets for the past seven years and they have done my four children a world of good. I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Very Likely

The case concerned a will, and an Irishman was a witness. "Was the deceased," asked the lawyer, "in the habit of talking to himself when alone?"

"I don't know," was the reply. "Come, come, you don't know, and yet you pretend that you were intimately acquainted with him?" "The fact is," said Pat, dryly, "I never happened to be with him when he was alone."—London Saturday Journal.

SURGICAL MAGNETS.

In the hospitals of England magnets have been developed to the point where fragments of shrapnel to the surface from a depth in the flesh of even six inches, and steel-pieces of shrapnel have been drawn out from a depth of more than two inches.

At the "Invalide" Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., are many as wonderful electric machines, high frequency currents, X-ray, etc. Dr. Pierce has equipped the Sanitarium with every known device to aid the sick and in the Surgical Department every instrument and appliance approved by the modern operator. The treatment of every ailment is accomplished here without pain, and with local anesthesia. Gravel removed in many cases without pain and the patient can return home cured in a few days.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, nearly half a century ago, devised and used two perscriptions which were almost unfailing. They were made without alcohol or narcotics, extracted from roots and herbs by using pure glycerine. The ingredients are made public.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a tonic and blood purifier that cures pimples, blotches, sores, humors, eruptions and diseases of the skin.

Nothing stands so high to-day in the estimation of thousands of women as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—this is a soothing nerve. For girls about to enter womanhood, and for the days of middle age Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription should always be on hand. In liquid or tablet form. Write Dr. Pierce, Invalide Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Every Farmer Needs a Ford

THE Motor Car is a greater convenience to the average farmer than the telephone, the rural mail or even the grain binder.

The binder which is considered as a very useful implement is rarely used more than a few days during the entire year. The rest of the time it stands idle, taking up space, while the automobile is available for use throughout all seasons, and both day and night.

It is ever ready to run down the lane to the back field or the pasture with a parcel or a message, or take you and your family to town for shopping purposes—or on an errand to the neighbors.

The motor car is called upon whenever anything is wanted in a hurry. It is the most useful implement or convenience for the farm. It helps you conserve your energies and time for productive work and enables you and your family to accomplish more with less energy. You surely feel the need of a Ford. Why not order one today?

Standard Drilling Rigs Now Ready to Pound Their Way Into The Oil Sands

Warm Springs--Wyoming

Already one of the big producing fields of Wyoming. Eight wells have been completed and fortunate stockholders are drawing big dividends every month in the year. This is a "shallow" field and the drilling cost is at a minimum. Through a peculiar turn of fortune the Van Duzen Co. was able to secure valuable lease on this structure. At least a dozen companies are now drilling towards the oil producing sands in the Warm Springs Dome and we do not expect to lose much time in starting our operations there. Remember this is a producing field.

Sundance-Upton Fields--Wyoming

We were in this field before the boom started and have 6,080 acres under lease on the very apex of the structure. This dome bids fair to be one of the best fields in Wyoming and our large acreage will always make us the big company of this field. We have one rig spotted in this field.

Salt Creek--Wyoming

This is the most consistent oil producing field in all the world, and although the field is but five years old, it has made more wealthy people than any of the big fields of Wyoming. The wide-awake men who are at the head of this company have secured 320 acres of land less than a half mile from one of the largest gushers in the field. One 500 barrel well in this field at $1.00 per barrel would mean more than 20 per cent per annum on the total capitalization of the Van Duzen Oil Co. We have room for 64 wells on this property.

The Crazy Woman's Pocket--Montana

This dome has been recognized by many geologists to be the most perfect structure for an oil reservoir in all of America. Two other companies have wells in the process of completion on this dome, and it is reported that one of them has already encountered an oil producing sand. The Van Duzen Oil Co. has secured 660 acres of deeded land lying midway between the two wells now drilling. Our derrick is now in the course of construction. When this field is proven it will be the first producing field in Montana. Boom prices will prevail and our stock is sure to go sky high.

Powder River Junction--Wyoming

We have a one-third locator's interest in three one-quarter sections lying within a quarter of a mile from a well now being drilled by the famous Ohio Oil Co. This dome is looked upon as being one of the coming fields of the state. Shallow drilling and its proximity to rail transportation will make this field a big dividend payer.
